

FREE TRAINING- ELDER ABUSE DYNAMICS, RESOURCES & COLLABORATION 5/10/17

May 10, 2017

9 am- 5 pm

Elisabeth Haub School of Law
at Pace University

78 North Broadway

White Plains, NY 10603

Please join Westchester's ALL Grant Coordinated Community Response Team in a free coordinated community response training targeted for victim service providers, aging professionals, visiting nurses, hospital staff and related professionals who work with adults and seniors in our community, aged 50 and above. Learn about the dynamics of abuse in later life and the resources available in Westchester County to help victims of abuse, and help us work together to improve collaboration to benefit our seniors.

More details to follow including registration information – email SCarroll@law.pace.edu or call 914.422.4109

*This training was created for the Enhanced Training and Services to End Violence and Abuse of Women in Later Life, US Dept. of Justice, Office of Violence Against Women.

Brought to you locally by: Westchester County Office for Women, Westchester County District Attorney's Office, Town of Greenburgh Police Dept. Westchester County Dept. of Social Services-APS, Pace Women's Justice Center, Westcop/Victims Assistance Services, Weinberg Center for Elder Abuse Services & Prevention at the Hebrew Home at Riverdale

